FINDINGS AND DECISION

This medical fee dispute is decided pursuant to Texas Labor Code §413.031 and all applicable, adopted rules of the Texas Department of Insurance, Division of Workers’ Compensation.

Background

1. 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.305 and §133.307, 27 Texas Register 12282, applicable to requests filed on or after January 1, 2003, sets out the procedures for resolving medical fee disputes.
2. 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401, 22 Texas Register 6264, effective August 1, 1997, sets out the fee guidelines for inpatient services rendered in an acute care hospital for the date of admission in dispute.
 - Effective July 13, 2008, the Division’s rule at former 28 Texas Administrative Code § 134.401 was repealed. The repeal adoption preamble specified, in pertinent part: “Section 134.401 will continue to apply to reimbursements related to admissions prior to March 1, 2008.” 33 Texas Register 5319, 5220 (July 4, 2008).
 - Former 28 Texas Administrative Code § 134.401(a)(1) specified, in pertinent part: “This guidelines shall become effective August 1, 1997. The Acute Care Inpatient Hospital Fee Guideline (ACIHFG) is applicable for all reasonable and medically necessary medical and/or surgical inpatient services rendered after the Effective Date of this rule in an acute care hospital to injured workers under the Texas Workers’ Compensation Act.” 22 Texas Register 6264, 6306 (July 4, 1997).
3. Case No. 08-11264 (BLS), related to Docket No. 397 in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware, regarding River Oaks Holdings, Inc., et al (Debtors), including River Oaks Medical Center, L.P. (d/b/a Twelve Oaks Medical Center under NPI 1598758765, and Medicare number 450378 according to the medical bills) was dismissed on December 2, 2009. The Division therefore proceeds with the adjudication of this medical fee dispute.

The services in dispute were reduced by the respondent with the following reason codes:

Issues

1. Did the audited charges exceed $40,000.00?
2. Did the admission in dispute involve unusually extensive services?

3. Did the admission in dispute involve unusually costly services?
4. Is the requestor entitled to additional reimbursement?

Findings

This dispute relates to inpatient surgical services provided in a hospital setting with reimbursement subject to the provisions of Division rule at 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401, titled Acute Care Inpatient Hospital Fee Guideline, effective August 1, 1997, 22 Texas Register 6264. The Third Court of Appeals' November 13, 2008 opinion in Texas Mutual Insurance Company v. Vista Community Medical Center, LLP, 275 South Western Reporter Third 538, 550 (Texas Appeals – Austin 2008, petition denied) addressed a challenge to the interpretation of 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401. The Court concluded that “to be eligible for reimbursement under the Stop-Loss Exception, a hospital must demonstrate that the total audited charges exceed $40,000 and that an admission involved unusually costly and unusually extensive services.” Both the requestor and respondent in this case supplemented the original MDR submissions. The division received supplemental positions as noted above. Positions were exchanged among the parties as appropriate. The documentation filed by the requestor and respondent to date is considered in determining whether the admission in dispute is eligible for reimbursement under the stop-loss method of payment. Consistent with the Third Court of Appeals' November 13, 2008 opinion, the division will address whether the total audited charges in this case exceed $40,000; whether the admission and disputed services in this case are unusually extensive; and whether the admission and disputed services in this case are unusually costly. 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(2)(C) states, in pertinent part, that “Independent reimbursement is allowed on a case-by-case basis if the particular case exceeds the stop-loss threshold...” 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(6) puts forth the requirements to meet the three factors that will be discussed.

28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(6)(A)(i) states “to be eligible for stop-loss payment the total audited charges for a hospital admission must exceed $40,000, the minimum stop-loss threshold.” Furthermore, (A) (v) of that same section states “Audited charges are those charges which remain after a bill review by the insurance carrier has been performed.” Review of the explanation of benefits issued by the carrier finds that the carrier did not deduct any charges in accordance with §134.401(c)(6)(A)(v); therefore the audited charges equal $72,082.48. The division concludes that the total audited charges exceed $40,000.

1. The requestor in its position states “The services provided by TOMC were unusually extensive...the services rendered to the Claimant involved a significant surgical procedure and L4/5 disk replacement...The procedures was also complicated by Claimant’s post-operative urinary retention issue.” The Third Court of Appeals in its November 13, 2008 opinion stated that “to be eligible for reimbursement under the Stop-Loss Exception, a hospital must demonstrate that an admission involved...unusually extensive services.” Although the requestor gave some particulars associated with the admission in dispute, it failed to compare the services in dispute to similar surgeries or admissions, thereby failing to demonstrate that the particulars of the admission in dispute constitute unusually extensive services. The division finds that the requestor did not meet the requirements of 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(6).
2. 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(6) states that “Stop-loss is an independent reimbursement methodology established to ensure fair and reasonable compensation to the hospital for unusually costly services rendered during treatment to an injured worker.” The Third Court of Appeals' November 13, 2008 opinion affirmed that in order to be eligible for reimbursement under the stop-loss exception, a hospital must demonstrate that an admission involved unusually costly services. Furthermore, the Third Court stated “What is unusually costly and unusually extensive in any particular fee dispute remains a fact-intensive inquiry best left to the Division’s determination on a case-by-case basis...The scope of this authority includes the discretion to determine whether those standards have been met.”

The requestor’s first contends that “The services provided by TOMC were also unusually costly.” In support of its contention that the services in dispute were unusually costly, the requestor states “A measure of the costliness of the services provided by TOMC is by comparison of the claim in question to other workers’ compensation hospital, in-patient claims in Texas. According to a recent study conducted by the Workers’ Compensation Research Institute, the average hospital in-patient payment per claim in Texas during the period of 2006 was between of $15,000 - $16,000. Thus, in comparison to other Texas hospital, in-patient claims, the services provided were unusually costly.” The requestor puts forth an average payment of $15,000 - $16,000 as a standard of comparison, but then it fails to compare that average to any factor specific to the “claim in question” (the services in dispute). Additionally, an average payment in Texas during 2006 for all in-patient hospitalizations does not provide information on an average or median payment for similar surgeries to the in-patient services involved in this case and, therefore does not establish that the services in this case were unusually costly when compared with similar services provided in other cases during 2006 in Texas. The “stop-loss” exception to “per-diem” reimbursement rates in the rule “...was meant to apply on a case-by-case basis in relatively few cases...” as noted in the 2008 appellate court opinion specified in the initial paragraph of the “Findings” above.

The requestor has failed to discuss or demonstrate how the services in dispute are unusually costly when compared to similar surgeries or admissions.

3. 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(b)(2)(A) titled General Information states, in pertinent part, that “The basic reimbursement for acute care hospital inpatient services rendered shall be the lesser of:
 - (i) a rate for workers’ compensation cases pre-negotiated between the carrier and the hospital;
 - (ii) the hospital’s usual and customary charges; and
 - (iii) reimbursement as set out in section (c) of this section for that admission

In regards to the hospital’s usual and customary charges in this case, review of the medical bill finds that the health care provider’s usual and customary charges equal $72,082.48.

In regards to reimbursement set out in (c), the division determined that the requestor failed to support that the services in dispute are eligible for the stop-loss method of reimbursement; therefore 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(1), titled Standard Per Diem Amount, and §134.401(c)(4), titled Additional Reimbursements, apply. The division notes that additional reimbursements under §134.401(c)(4) apply only to bills that do not reach the stop-loss threshold described in subsection (c)(6) of this section.

- Division rule at 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(3)(ii) states, in pertinent part, that “The applicable Workers' Compensation Standard Per Diem Amount (SPDA) is multiplied by the length of stay (LOS) for admission...” Review of the submitted documentation finds that the length of stay for this admission was two surgical days; therefore the standard per diem amounts of $1,118.00 applies. The per diem rates multiplied by the allowable days result in a total allowable amount of $2,236.00.
- Review of the medical documentation provided finds that although the requestor billed items under revenue code 278, no invoices were found to support the cost of the implantables billed. For that reason, no additional reimbursement is recommended.
- 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(4)(B) allows that “When medically necessary the following services indicated by revenue codes shall be reimbursed at a fair and reasonable rate: (iv) Blood (revenue codes 380-399).” A review of the submitted hospital bill finds that the requestor billed $384.00 for revenue code 382 - Blood and $96.00 for revenue code 390 – Blood Processing. 28 Texas Administrative Code §133.307(g)(3)(D), requires the requestor to provide “documentation that discusses, demonstrates, and justifies that the payment amount being sought is a fair and reasonable rate of reimbursement.” Review of the submitted documentation finds that the requestor does not demonstrate or justify that the amount sought for revenue codes 382 and 390 would be a fair and reasonable rate of reimbursement. Additional payment cannot be recommended.
- 28 Texas Administrative Code §134.401(c)(4)(C) states “Pharmaceuticals administered during the admission and greater than $250 charged per dose shall be reimbursed at cost to the hospital plus 10%. Dose is the amount of a drug or other substance to be administered at one time.” A review of the submitted itemized statement finds that the requestor billed eight units of Vancomycin 1GM at $329.00/unit, for a total charge of $2,632.00. The requestor did not submit documentation to support what the cost to the hospital was for Thrombin USP TOP. For that reason, reimbursement for these items cannot be recommended.

The total reimbursement set out in the applicable portions of (c) results a total allowable of $2,236.00.

Reimbursement for the services in dispute is therefore determined by the lesser of:

§134.401(b)(2)(A)	Finding
(i)	Not Applicable
(ii)	$72,082.48
(iii)	$2,236.00
